In the Multitude of Counselors...

“At no point can tolerance be given to the theory that the innocent man in the Garden of Eden was God's first and highest ideal, that sin entered in spite of God, and that redemption is an afterthought—the best available remedy in view of the wreckage of sin. It is the redeemed sinner who takes the highest place in glory. This redemption was in view before all creation...It is evident, therefore, that the supreme motive of God in the creation, preservation, and consummation of the universe, in the permission of evil to enter the world, and in the mighty undertakings of salvation as it is now offered to sinful men through the death and resurrection of Christ, is that His “riches of grace” may be disclosed to all intelligences within the whole scope of creation. If the supreme motive of God is to reveal His grace, then salvation must be by grace alone, or the eternal purpose of God must fail.”

Words from your Pastor

Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

Mathew 5:43-48

Legacy has learned over the past five months that the Christian life is a life characterized by influence. How we live our lives among men is an indicator of our heart before God. How is this church doing in regard to truly loving others? How are you doing? Are we willing to be taken advantage of, if only to have the opportunity to reflect the love of God? Do we go out of our way, and even our nature, to show other's the nature of the God we serve?

Monthly Memory Work:
Ephesians 1:3-6
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved.
Missionary of the Month

Sam and Abby Sanderlin are missionaries to the Northwest Provice of Cameroon, West Africa. They have been in Cameroon full time since April of 2009. the Lord has led the Sanderlins to begin their ministry in a nearby village at the base of Ngoketunjia Mountain. Sam plans to work side by side with trained nationals from the Fundamental Bible Institute in Cameroon. He also plans to teach in the Bible institute to help train more Cameroonian preachers. Abby will be helping in established medical evangelism clinics. Sam also regularly flies airplanes as a representative of Wings as Eagles, a missionary aviation ministry. Pray for this church planting team to effectively reach people with the gospel.
