We Must Tell Them!

The following is an excerpt from a letter sent to Dr. Ray Comfort from an atheist. While it was certainly not his intent to do so, his words are a reminder to every Christian of the necessity to tell others about Christ:

"You are really convinced that you've got all the answers. You've really got yourself tricked into believing that you're 100% right. Well, let me tell you just one thing. Do you consider yourself to be compassionate of other humans? If you're right, as you say you are, and you believe that, then how can you sleep at night? When you speak with me, you are speaking with someone who you believe is walking directly into eternal damnation, into an endless onslaught of horrendous pain which your 'loving' god created, yet you stand by and do nothing.

If you believed one bit that thousands every day were falling into an eternal and unchangeable fate, you should be running the streets mad with rage at their blindness. That's equivalent to standing on a street corner and watching every person that passes you walk blindly directly into the path of a bus and die, yet you stand idly by and do nothing. You're just twiddling your thumbs, happy in the knowledge that one day that 'walk' signal will shine your way across the road.

Think about it. Imagine the horrors Hell must have in store if the Bible is true. You're just going to allow that to happen and not care about saving anyone but yourself? If you're right then you're an uncaring, unemotional and purely selfish (expletive) that has no right to talk about subjects such as love and caring." – unknown atheist

May God help us to see the eternal soul behind every human being. May God give us a passion to see them saved from an eternity of torment!

"...and how shall they hear without a preacher?" – Romans 10:14

A Word from your Pastor

What are you living for? This is a question that is easy to answer properly, but difficult to live properly. When I was seeking confirmation of my call into full-time ministry, the passage of Scripture God impressed upon my heart was Mark 10:29-31. Jesus Christ said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's, But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come eternal life. But many that are first shall be last; and the last first. Those things listed above are blessings from God. Appreciate them, be good stewards of them, but don't live for them. What are you living for? Live for God! You will never regret it.

Monthly Memory Work:

Jude 17-23 ~ But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts. These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And of some have compassion, making a difference: And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.

Missionary of the Month

Alan and Elena Sutphin - Uganda (BIMI)

After going to Uganda in 2005, on a short term medical missions trip, we saw the need of the Ugandans. After returning from that trip the Lord convicted me about what my contribution should be in the Great Commission to the country of Uganda. After much prayer and council from our Pastor, we surrendered to the field of Uganda and began our deputation in February 2009. We completed deputation April 2011 and arrived in Uganda June 2011. We will stay in Soroti for our first term as we become "Africanized," and begin learning the dialect to the particular tribe we will be ministering to.
